Goals: 0-1 Upamecano 4' (assist: Sané), 0-2 Kane 9' (assis) Tj T* B

Having failed to win any of the last six games against Bayern on home turf, Dortmund will have been eager to keep things tight early on versus Der Reko rdmeister. However, their plans were thrown out of the window as the visitors put them to the sword in the opening stages. Thomas Tuchel's side needed less than four minutes to break the deadlock, with Dayot Upamecano heading Leroy Sané's corner beyond Gregor Kobel, and they were soon two to the good when Sané laid a pass on a plate for Kane to tap home. Die Roten displayed an intensity that was missing from their midweek DFB Cup defeat to Saarbrücken, and Edin Terzi's men struggled to deal with it. They did improve as the half progressed, and came within inches of halving the arrears on the stroke of half-time through Donyell Malen, whose effort flied agonisingly wide of the post. However, no Dortmund supporter could really argue with the two-goal deficit at the interval.

Almost immediately after the restart, Kobel needed to produce an important stop to deny Jamal Musiala, before Noussair Mazraoui fired over from the resultant corner. Dortmund had to improve after the interval and, to their credit, they did pose more of an attacking threat. Their best opportunity fell to Marco Reus, who was only thwarted by a strong Manuel Neuer hand after striking on the turn. Bayern remained dangerous, though, and Kobel needed to be alert to keep ou
