A penalty shootout starts with two coin tosses - the first to determine the side of the field where the kicks will be taken from and the second to determine which team takes the first kick of the penalty shootout. Before a penalty shootout starts, each team selects five players to take penalty kicks.

Penalty shoot out in football: Rules and its history at the FIFA World Cup

In football, a penalty kick is a direct free kick from the 12 yard spot. It can be awarded in play for a foul by the defending side inside the area. A penalty shootout is a series of kicks from the spot, when a game (usually in a cup tournament) is tied after extra time and a replay has failed to produce a winner.
