The announcement comes after Microsoft on Friday def eated a last-ditch effort by the US Federal Trade Commission to scuttle the c ompany's$68.7 billion purchase of Activision Blizzard. The Ninth Circuit Co urt of Appeals declined to grant the regulator an emergency stay of a ruling that allows the deal to proceed in the US. The United Kingdom's Markets and Competition Authority (CMA) is the last remaining regulator of note opposed t o the purchase, but the watchdog and Microsoft recently agreed to put their l egal battle over the deal on hold and negotiate a compromise. We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and @PlayStation have sign ed a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the acqui sition of Activision Blizzard. We look forward to a future where players global ly have more choice to play their favorite games. Phil Spencer (@XboxP3) July 16, 2024

"From Day One of this acquisition, we ve been committed to address ing the concerns of regulators, platform and game developers, and consumers,& quot; Microsoft President and Vice Chair Brad Smith tweeted in response to Spenc er's post. "Even after we cross the finish line for this deal s appr oval, we will remain focused on ensuring that Call of Duty remains available on more platforms and for more consumers than ever before." Spencer did not disclose the terms of Microsoft's deal with Sony, t hough Stephen Totilo of Axios later confirmed that it is 10 years in duration . Microsoft first offered Sony a 10-year deal to keep Call of Duty on current and future PlayStation consoles at the end of last year. though the Japanese el
